This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below.

The bar chart below shows Libya’s total risk scores in 4 domains: (1) Business Interactions with Government, (2) Anti-Bribery Deterrence and Enforcement, (3) Government and Civil Service Transparency and (4) Capacity for Civil Society Oversight. The four domain scores are weighted and combined and a risk penalty is added for individual domain scores that exceed the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain, and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery.

- 1. Business Interactions with Government: Libya receives a very high score of 88 in this domain, based on a high degree of government interaction, high expectation of bribes, and a very high regulatory burden.
- 2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: Libya receives a very high score of 78 in this domain, based on a low quality of anti-bribery laws and a very low quality of anti-bribery enforcement.
- 3. Government and Civil Services Transparency: Libya receives a very high score of 89 in this domain, based on poor governmental transparency and very poor transparency of financial interests.
- 4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: Libya receives a high score of 70 in this domain, based on a low degree of media freedom/quality and a low degree of civic engagement.
