

United Arab Emirates

Overall Risk Score: 31

Risk Level: low

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

- Business Interactions with Government: The United Arab Emirates receives a very good score of 7 in this domain, based on a very low degree of government interaction, a very low expectation of bribes, and a very low regulatory burden.
- Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: The United Arab Emirates receives a good score of 20 in this domain, based on a high quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a high quality of anti-bribery enforcement.
- Government and Civil Service Transparency: The United Arab Emirates receives a medium score of 46 in this domain, based on medium governmental transparency and medium transparency of financial interests.
- Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: The United Arab Emirates receives a poor score of 64 in this domain, based on a very low degree of media freedom/quality and a medium degree of civil society engagement.
